

Effective October 20, 2014

American Baptist Historical Society
DUPLICATION AGREEMENT

I would like to make duplications/reproductions of materials in the ABHS collection described on the reverse side of this agreement. I understand that, in accepting this service, I agree to the following conditions:

1. Reproduction of archival and library materials are for use only in research and private study by the applicant. Copies may not be reproduced in full or in part with written permission from ABHS. The applicant, without prior written consent of ABHS, may not place copies at other repositories.

2. Offsite researchers seeking duplication of ABHS materials must request those materials through the ABHS Research-by-Mail service. Research by Mail fees, charged by the hour, cover staff labor costs connected with locating the appropriate collection materials. Duplication fees are in addition to the research-by-mail charges. Duplication fees for Onsite researchers are in addition to day-use reading room charges. The applicant agrees to pay the full cost of copies ordered, including labor charges, postage and handling, and other charges, as applicable.

3. ABHS reserves the right to: 1) refuse to copy any item that may be damaged by the reproduction process; 2) refuse to copy items that are restricted by copyright; 3) Limit the number of photographic copies, photocopies, or scans; 4) charge different fees than those currently published by ABHS.

4. With the approval of ABHS archival staff, onsite patrons may make their own copies with personal scanners or cameras. ABHS staff must approve the scanning/photography equipment, as well as the collection materials to be scanned.

5. Excerpts from copyrighted materials may not be quoted by the applicant in his or her own work or elsewhere without permission of the copyright holder, except as allowed under the fair use guidelines of the copyright law (Title 17, USC). Reproduction of complete unpublished or copyrighted published works (whether in an article, book, film, website, etc.) requires permission of the copyright holder. The applicant is responsible for obtaining this permission prior to publication. In addition, if the applicant wishes to publish from manuscript or archival materials held in ABHS, written permission must also be secured from the Archivist or Director. Contact ABHS for more information on how to request permission to publish ABHS collection materials.

6. The applicant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the American Baptist Historical Societies, its officers, employees and agents from and against all suits, claims, actions and expenses arising out of the use of reproductions provided by the ABHS.

NOTICE
WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified by law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to accept a copying order, if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve a violation of copyright law.

37 C.F.R. §201.14

Signed _____ Date _____